

How to stop your bus at the bus stop

- Some bus stops in the Adelaide Metro public transport system are used by more than one bus route.
- It is necessary that you always hail the bus you require.
- This can be done by clearly raising your arm so the driver will know you want that particular bus to stop.
- Keep your arm extended until the bus driver indicates he is going to stop by using his indicator.

